A Fine Collection of Women's Stylish Suits.

NO matter what price you wish to pay for your suit, or what style you desire, we believe we have one in our stock that will meet with your approval.

Only the newest and most fashionable fabrics are here—and there are a great many to choose from this season. The newest ideas in tailoring, trimming, &c., are never absent from our showing.

If you require a simple little Tailored Suit for alternating with the better ones, you should inspect these at $12.00. They are fashioned of fine homespun and have the stylish 40-inch Semi-fitting Coats, lined with gray satin—the popular plaited skirts.

Special Price, $12 each.

Plain and Fancy Striped Serge Suits at $15.00—a very unusual value, and we believe every woman will recognize them as such. The Semi-fitting Long Coat is lined with satin, and the skirts are the newest plaited styles. There is nothing newer in style and tailoring, and ordinarily we would mark them at $20.00, but in this case we offer them at the Special Price, $15 each.

Strictly Tailored Coat Suits at $18.50—made of fine quality serges, and shown in black, navy blue, and all the season's newest and most popular shades. The Semi-fitting, Single-breasted Long Coat is very smart looking; finished with tailored collar, pockets and sleeves. A model that shows distinct individuality.

Special Price, $18.50 each.

High-Grade Dress Goods at Unusually Low Prices.

FINE Homespun—a very fashionable and popular material this season; of good weight and texture, and shown in several unusually attractive dark colorings. They are 49 inches wide, and will make exceptionally fine looking Tailored Suits and Separate Skirts. This material will be placed on sale at the special price,

89c the yard. A regular $1.50 value.

We also offer Fine Imported All-wool Plaids, in four different designs and styles—all exceptionally good. The weight is that most suited for suits and skirts—and it will build into very stylish ones, too. We offer them at the special price,

75c the yard. A regular $1.50 value.

Exceptional Values in Women's Hosiery.

WE will place on sale this morning two very exceptional values in Women's High-grade Hose. They are of excellent quality, and the colors are absolutely fast.

Turkish Envoys Guests at the White House.

DINNER AT GERMAN EMBASSY

Count d'Alti Leases Residence 2017 Massachusetts Avenue—Gen. and Mrs. John W. Foster Entertain Archaeological Society—Mrs. H. W. Kennard Gives Tea.

President Taft entertained at dinner last night in the White House in honor of the Turkish envoys. The guests were his excellency Zia Pasha, Col. Aziz Bey, the Secretary of State, the Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of the Navy, the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, the Admiral of the Navy, the charge d'affaires of Turkey, the second secretary of the Turkish Embassy, the Chief of the Bureau of Navigation, Navy Department; the Assistant Secretary of State, the Second Assistant Secretary of State, the Third Assistant Secretary of State, the chief clerk of the Department of State, Col. Spencer Cosby, Lieut. Commander Leigh C. Palmer, and Capt. A. W. Butt.

The German Ambassador and Countess von Bernstorff entertained at dinner last evening in honor of the United States Ambassador to Germany and Mrs. David Jayne Hill, who are visiting in this country.

This was the first large dinner company this season in the diplomatic circle and, coming this early, seems to portend a season of unprecedented gaiety. The other guests were the Danish Minister and Countess von Moltke, Mrs. Huntington Wilson, wife of the Assistant Secretary of State; the counselor of the Italian Embassy and Marchesa de Montagliari, Miss Mabel Boardman, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Gaff, Mr. and Mrs. George Howard, Mr. Basil Miles, Herr Brandenstein, house guest at the embassy, and Count von Wedel, counselor of the embassy.

Count d'Alti, Minister from Portugal to this country since the spring of 1907, who has lived at the Shoreham during that time, has leased the residence at 2017 Massachusetts Avenue for the season and has taken possession of it. The count is one of the popular bachelors in the diplomatic corps.

The Greek Minister, Mr. Coromilas, who has been absent for some time, has again postponed his arrival for the winter, and will not come for another week. He went from New York to Boston last week.

Gen. and Mrs. John W. Foster opened their home in Eighteenth street last night for the first evening meeting of the Archaeological Society, of which Gen. Foster is president. It was, as usual, an occasion of much brilliance. The society has a large membership of scientific, artistic, and otherwise cultivated people, and among the guests were many members of the diplomatic corps and their wives. Among these were the British Ambassador and Mrs. Bryce, as usual, the French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand, Gen. and Mrs. Foster will entertain the visiting Chinese commissioner, Baron Liang Kuei, brother-in-law of his Imperial Highness the prince regent of China, and his suite at tea on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. H. W. Kennard, wife of the second secretary of the British Embassy, entertained a company of young people at luncheon yesterday to meet Miss Freshfield and Miss Paul, guests of Mrs. Bryce, at the British Embassy.

The marriage of Miss "Polly" Mason, little known by her proper name, of Mary Wallace Mason, to Mr. Philip Halsey Patchin, whose engagement was announced a few weeks ago, will take place December 2, at 4 o'clock, in St. Margaret's Episcopal Church. The bride-elect is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Randolph Mason, of Gunston Hall, and was a debutante of two years ago. Her uncle, Rev. C. K. Nelson, D. D., Bishop of Georgia, will come to Washington to officiate, and will be assisted by Rev. Herbert Scott Smith, rector of St. Margaret's. A reception will follow the ceremony in the home of the bride's parents, the new Gunston Hall.

Mrs. Hodges, wife of Lieut. Col. Hodges, U. S. A., entertained at a tea yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Goethals, wife of Col. Goethals, of the Isthmian Canal Commission, who is the guest of this week of Mrs. Hodges. Mrs. Gillespie, wife of Maj. George M. Gillespie, and Mrs. Hall, wife of Brig. Gen. William P. Hall, presided at the tea table. Others in the assisting party were Mrs. Aleshire, wife of Gen. Aleshire; Mrs. Earden, wife of Maj. W. J. Earden; Mrs. W. J. Earden; Mrs. George D. Ruggles, and Miss Alma Ruggles.

Miss Esther Denny and Miss Laura Wells have returned from a week-end visit to Annapolis.

Mrs. Webster and Miss Frances Webster, wife and daughter of Maj. E. K. Webster, entertained yesterday afternoon at a tea, to present Miss Alice Boutell, the debutante daughter of Representative Boutell, of Chicago, in their apartment at the Wyoming. The reception rooms and hall were decorated with yellow roses and chrysanthemums, and autumn foliage and palms. Mrs. J. W. Davidson, Mrs. Curtis Hopkins, Mrs. Roger Boutell, sister-in-law of the guest of honor, Mrs. Walker Williams, Mrs. P. D. Lechridge, Miss Caroline Williams, and Miss Lucy Lauck were in the assisting party. Mrs. Webster, who is the godmother of Miss Helen Taft, wore a gown of champagne colored silk, embroidered in blue, and Miss Webster, a gown of last season, wore a white chiffon. Miss Boutell wore apricot satin with touches of black velvet and lace. Miss Boutell will be the guest of honor at a tea to be given by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Roger Sherman Boutell, to-morrow afternoon.

Mrs. Carter, wife of Senator Carter, has as her house guest Mrs. Brannagan, wife of Dr. Frank A. Brannagan, of the Philippine commission.

A wedding of much interest here was celebrated in Wyoming, Ohio, last Saturday evening, when Miss Dorothy Stearns became the bride of Mr. Albert Lee Thurman, grandson of the late Senator Thurman, known as the "Old Woman" in Ohio politics. The date selected was the anniversary of the birth of the famous former Senator.

A number of the descendants of George Washington gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Washington, of Westmoreland County, Va., last Saturday, and had a most delightful family reunion. The Washington home at Laurel Grove is on the ancestral Washington estates on Popes Creek. Those at the gathering

VERDICT ON TRIMMER'S DEATH.

Coroner's Jury Says Pneumonia and Accident Brought His End.

The death of James E. Trimmer at the Government Hospital for the Insane about a week ago resulted from pneumonia and injuries received in an accident, according to the verdict of a coroner's jury at an inquest at the morgue yesterday afternoon.

The testimony was given largely by physicians at the hospital, showing that Trimmer was violent while in the hospital, and injured himself in an effort to gain his liberty. The verdict was as follows:

"James E. Trimmer came to his death at the Government Hospital for the Insane on November 7 from pneumonia and broken ribs, the said injury received as the result of an accidental fall while trying to escape from the said hospital."

The jury was composed of John D. Crumfield, William L. Lynn, M. A. Tanner, Newton Edmonds, Thomas B. Walker, and Edward L. Winter.
